The goal of the Hollyhock Principals’ Institute is to share the Hollyhock Fellowship program with leaders of Hollyhock schools such that they may maximize the experience of their teacher fellows and leverage fellows' learning across the larger school context. To that end, the Hollyhock Principals’ Institute will provide you with an opportunity to see your fellows' learning experience firsthand, to learn about our practice-based approach to professional development, and to engage with other Hollyhock principals to consider how best to take full advantage of this opportunity for your school.
